TRIBAL SPECIAL PROVISIONS

July 20, 2000

This project is located, in whole or in part, on lands covered by the Tribal Employment Rights Ordinances. These Ordinances, which generally provide for employment of Indians and payment of a tax, are in full effect on this contract.

No separate payment will be made for the TERO tax. The contractor shall include this cost in that cost of other items.

The contractor shall be responsible for himself, subcontractors, and lower tier contractors subsequently negotiating a written agreement with the appropriate Tribal officials which specifies the arrangements, conditions, and requirements to comply with TERO ordinances. A facsimile copy, with all signatures, shall be delivered to the Resident Engineer before commencing any work on the project.
